

“The first time I had an Angel Tree sign-up sheet in front of me, I didn’t sign it, because I just knew there must be strings attached. But the second year, I signed it, and my kid, who I hadn’t ever seen, got a Power Rangers outfit. For the first time ever, I felt like a daddy! It made me feel like somebody. [Angel Tree] didn’t want anything back. It was unconditional.”
-Bobby McGee, former prisoner

SIGN UP TO SEND YOUR CHILDREN GIFTS THROUGH PRISON FELLOWSHIP’S ANGEL TREE®.

Angel Tree is a great way to let your kids know you love them. You suggest types of gifts they may receive (with caregiver input) and write them a personal message. Angel Tree volunteers do the rest ... buying and delivering the gifts on your behalf. All you have to do is sign up! Ask your chaplain or program director for an Angel Tree application today.
